

Cancellation and Return Policy

Orders are normally shipped within 24 hours of receipt of your faxed or emailed purchase order. You may cancel your order at any time prior to shipping. If you cancel an order after it ships, the materials must be returned unopened, prepaid, and via the same method as used for delivery to you. Returns are accepted for materials which are in unused, resalable condition within 30 days of receipt, subject to a 15% restocking fee and our $20 shipping and handling fee. Prepaid return shipping costs, using the same delivery method as the materials were sent, are the responsibility of the purchaser.
